How we apply interest

NSW Statutory Trust Account - All interest will be transferred to the relevant statutory fund as required by the applicable law regulating that Licensee

Real Estate Trust Account – All interest will be transferred to the relevant industry body

NSW Solicitor Trust Account – All interest will be transferred to the relevant industry body

Eligibility

To open a Statutory Trust account, you must be in Australia and have an Australian residential address. You need to be able to verify both your identity and residential address.

To keep a Statutory Trust account open, you must continue to have an Australian residential address.

Using your account

Access all transactions on your account via online banking.

We generally issue you a statement every six months, or more frequently if requested.

Move money by cheque, electronic funds transfers, online, mobile or branch transfer from your linked business account.

How to close your account

1. Contact us by phone or email, or visit us in a branch for a withdrawal form
2. Return the completed form
3. Destroy all cards and unused cheques

Fees and charges

The Statutory Trust account is subject to transaction fees, government charges and third-party fees which will be applied to your linked account.

Government charges

The relevant government body sets the amount for these charges:

- income tax
- all extra government stamp and other duties
- fees and charges that may apply to your account whether or not you are primarily liable to pay those charges (i.e. withholding tax).

If you provide your tax file number, we will report the interest you earn to the Australian Taxation Office (ATO). If you do not provide your tax file number, we may be required to deduct tax from interest earned on your account at the highest marginal tax rate plus the Medicare Levy and remit it to the ATO.

Transaction fees

The Transaction Fee Allowance of $3.00 per month is applicable.

Transaction fees are charged monthly on the first day of the following month and upon closure of the account.

All applicable fees and charges will be applied to your linked Business Access or Optimiser account.
